

The usual "miserable composition" appears in the dispatches of this morning. Russia wants England to knock the chip from her shoulder, and half of the British Cabinet are inclined to do so, but the peaceable half are said to experience little difficulty in holding their own.

Paris having resorted to cats and guinea pigs, is discovered all at once to have plenty to eat, and enough brandy for a year.

A victory for the French near Vendome is reported, and the report is confirmed, all, however, from French sources, and heavy fighting is reported to have occurred in several places, but the particulars of the battles are wanting. If the dispatches of news could be induced to give us more facts and less of their own fancies, readers as well as editors would be much better pleased. It is comforting, however, to know that through all the troubles now suffered in Europe, Odo Russell has had his dinner.

Excitement Over a Contested Election—Two Governors.

Monday, November 28.—Today has been one of excitement here. At a late hour last night, Gov. Smith and Treasurer Bingham obtained from the Senate, and what he could not open and count the votes for Governor and Treasurer. At one o'clock, the two Houses met in convention. Mr. Barr, President of the Senate, announced that he would not open and count the votes for Governor and Treasurer, but that he would count for the other officers. The result of the count showed that the majority of the votes cast in the State were for the following candidates: H. H. Moran, Lieutenant Governor, received 4,372 majority; J. J. Parker, Secretary of State, 4,153, and J. W. A. Sanford, 4,123, all of which are Democratic. The President announced these gentlemen legally elected to their respective offices, and ordered the returns to be sent to the Secretary of State to await judicial proceedings.

Senator Mahery then offered a resolution that Hon. H. H. Moran be sworn in as Lieutenant Governor, and be invited to preside over the joint convention as the legal presiding officer of the Senate. Mr. Barr, in reply, said that he had announced that the resolution was out of order, and asked the Senate to reconsider the matter. The Senate refused to reconsider the matter, and immediately adjourned.

Mr. Moran, in the meantime, was sworn in as Lieutenant Governor by Judge J. J. Parker, and immediately took the Speaker's chair. He announced that he was ready to proceed to business as the presiding officer of the joint convention. Mr. Moran then read a resolution that the Secretary of State, Mr. Miller, Mr. Parker not being sworn in, be asked by the Lieutenant Governor for the return of the vote cast at the last election.

Mr. Phelan, clerk of the House, waited on the Secretary of State, and obtained the return of Mr. Moran. A majority of the General Assembly being present they then counted out the votes for Governor and Treasurer. It resulted in 4,223 majority for Governor, and about 2,500 for Governor. Mr. Lindsey took the oath of office as Governor, and the State for the next two years.
